

Experience the History of Firefighting in Raleigh

Visit the Raleigh Fire Museum

105 Keeter Center Drive, Raleigh, NC

Open second Saturday of each month, 10 to 2

Admission is free

www.raleighfiremuseum.org

The Raleigh Fire Museum is located just a few blocks south of downtown Raleigh at the fire department training center at 105 Keeter Center Drive. It's open on the second Saturday of each month, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The 900 square-foot museum includes hundreds of artifacts and photographs. Admission is free, and parking and restrooms are available.

Support the museum

The Raleigh Fire Museum relies on donations to support our operations. Annual memberships are sold as a fundraiser. The cost is $24 per year for firefighters and the general public, or $18 for retired Raleigh firefighters. Purchase membership at the museum, or on our web site: www.raleighfiremuseum.org.

Visit our web site

Visit www.raleighfiremuseum.org, and learn about the history of the Raleigh Fire Department, including our antique fire engines, and where you can see them.

The Raleigh Fire Museum is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation with the mission to preserve and present the history of firefighting of North Carolina's Capital City. Learn how you can participate. Contact our organization at contact@raleighfiremuseum.org, or PO Box 31084, Raleigh, NC 27622.